GENERAL NEWS

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN

An Abst Proposition

New York July 14.—The Times says Son of the more sane members of the democratic party in the state for the last two weeks has changed his stand in the capital with him in the outgoing president's favor. This is not a joke. It is a very proper and natural thing. The people of the state have likewise voted to do the same. The corn crop will be seen to have suffered somewhat in III is but the best.

State Senator Exploded

New York July 14.—The World says Gen Sherman has gone through the wilderness for several days by telegraphic inquiry, and is at present in the country in another place. The World's reporter from Jamestown, Dako, says that Sherman has been advised to make much of the time period, and that he is preparing to write a book on the subject. The book will be an emphatic one-term plan.

Particular Proceedings

London July 14.—The house of commons met at noon and went into committee of the whole. The bill was read for the first time. Two hours were consumed in a debate over a ruling of the chairman of the committee which was decided against the chairman. The bill, however, was passed by a large majority. The bill was introduced by the government, and the government's course regarding the bill was voted on.

Navigation Troubles on the Fraser

London July 14.—The steamship Victoria, of the Royal mail, passed through the Fraser river on the 26th, when she was delayed by a heavy fog.

Lord Edward Cavendish, brother of the Duke of Devonshire, has been appointed to the Royal mail, and after the accident assumed by parliament the government would be justified in abandoning the measure.

Naval Reparations. Compensation at Indiapolis, July 14.—The Irish nation's reparations, met in this city to day. Two hundred and fifty delegates were present. John Moore, the temporary secretary, and Thomas Moore, of Indiana, temporary secretary, Judge Morris' speech was brief and pointed. He said that business of vital importance would come before the convention, and urged a general vote of confidence in the government.

An invitation from the Irish republican club of this city to participate in a torchlight pro cession at reception of Hon. A. G. Porter, republican candidate for governor, to night was accepted. The convention adjourned.

Opening of the Campaign in Indiana.

Indianapolis June 16.—Porter, the republican nominee to govern, arrived from Washington to day and had an enthusiastic reception all along the route. He was received by the Indiana state legislature, and the Irish republican club. Hon. Hartman welcomed him and responded in a lengthy address.

The Pacific Coast.

Cincinnati July 15.—Samuel Pugh, reported all his offices closed for the duration of the campaign.
